

Blues set for Oxford —again

HAVING put nine goals past Oxford City in two games this season, Wycombe Wanderers meet them for the third time tonight (Tuesday) when they travel to the White House ground for a Premier Midweek Floodlight League match.

On their last visit Wanderers hammered eight goals past City but in the return match at Loakes Park on Boxing Day, they found things a good deal tougher, a solitary own goal by Stokes dividing the teams.

But despite their 1-0 defeat at Leatherhead on Saturday, Wanderers should go further ahead at the top of the Premier Midweek League. At present they are ahead of Wokingham on goal average.

Under new boss Maurice Kyle, Oxford are improving steadily and only went down 3-2 at Gander Green Lane to Sutton on Saturday. Wanderers are expected to bring in Peter Spittle while Keith Jameson may also return.

MARLOW stage a friendly tonight against Surrey Senior League side Camberley (k.o. 7.45 p.m.). The Marlow squad will be: Junger, Richardson, Stone, Rand, Eyres, Reid, Bebb, Hill, Edmonds, Palmer, Kurka, McKeown.
